Approval Seen For Social Security Plan

House Panel Gives Nod To Expansions Urged By Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's program for a bigger and more liberal social security system was almost ready today for House consideration.

Members of the House Ways and Means Committee predicted their group would approve the legislation next week after a couple of finishing touches. The committee has been taking up the program on an item-by-item basis.

Late yesterday, the committee approved all of the President's requests for higher benefits, and also added some of its own.

It also approved, over the opposition of most committee Republicans, the President's plan to raise from $3,600 to $4,200 the maximum annual income on which benefits are based.

That left only two substantial items still to be acted upon: a proposal to extend coverage to farm laborers, and a plan to give disabled workers full benefits.

THE COMMITTEE already had accepted Eisenhower's request to extend social security coverage to doctors, lawyers, farmers, ministers, state and local government employees and various smaller groups.

If the bill becomes law, the system, now covering some 70 million workers and paying benefits to six million persons, would blanket almost the entire working force of the nation.

The social security system provides monthly payments to workers and their families on retirement or to their survivors. Both workers and their employers pay special taxes into a trust fund from which benefits are paid.

Although some parts of the program are controversial, little opposition to the over-all bill is expected in the House.

The new benefit structure would boost the minimum monthly payment for a single retired worker from $25 to $30, and the maximum from $85 to $98.50. The minimum for a retired worker and his wife (if she is 65 or over) would rise from $37.50 to $45; the maximum from $127.50 to $147.75.

Even bigger increases would be provided for those retiring after the new $4,200 base takes effect next year. The maximum monthly payment would be $108.50 for a single worker and $162.50 for a worker and his wife.

THE NEW $4,200 base also would increase taxes by $12 a year for those making that much or more.

Insured workers' survivors would get similar increases, with the monthly minimum for a family rising from $18.75 to $30 and the maximum from $168.75 to $200. Eisenhower had proposed a family ceiling of $190, but the committee went $10 higher.

Benefits are based on average monthly wages under the system.

Local Clergymen Speak On May 31

Monsignor George O. Mason, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Circleville, will deliver the main address May 31 when Memorial Day services are held in Forest Cemetery.

The announcement was made late Friday by Mack D. Parrett, co-chairman with Fred Boggs of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Invocation and benediction at the cemetery will be delivered by the Rev. Donald Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Services at the cemetery's "Soldier's Glen" will climax the traditional parade and Memorial Day program here.

Further plans are to be announced early next week.

Guam Plans Entry In Beauty Test

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—The island of Guam has been selected to send an entry to the Miss America pageant, 10,000 miles away, next September.

She'll be the winner of a Guam Junior Chamber of Commerce island beauty queen contest, pageant officials here announced.

SENATOR KARL MUNDT tells newsmen that Army Secretary Robert Stevens will repeat under oath Monday his statement that he, not the White House, was responsible for the Army's charges against Senator Joseph McCarthy and two of his top aides. McCarthy, meanwhile, said he "will be there" when the hearing convenes, but he is making "no promises" about seeing the hearing through to its conclusion.

Ike's Teen-Age Vote Plan Is Voted Down By Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's request to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years is doomed for this session of Congress.

The opposition, mostly Southern Democrats, killed the proposed constitutional amendment in the Senate late yesterday when supporters were able to round up only 34 votes.

That fell far short of the two-thirds majority required to approve the constitutional change and send it to the House for a similar test.

While Eisenhower's request was also pending in the House it was believed futile for that body to even consider the amendment at this session after the Senate turn-down.

Not a Republican opposed the amendment in yesterday's record

Three Injured In Crash Still Listed Serious

An elderly Circleville man and his son and daughter-in-law remained in serious condition at a Kentucky hospital Saturday as result of injuries suffered in a high-way accident last Wednesday night.

The condition of one of the three, George Seymour, 87, of 216 W. Mill St., was described as "critical". The three were among occupants of a car which collided with a semi-trailer truck on a curve near Lexington, Ky.

Also injured were the Rev. Glen Seymour, 45, of Columbus, son of the Circleville man, and Daisy Seymour, wife of the clergyman. All three injured were at Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington.

Mrs. Harvey Kirby of Circleville, daughter of the elder Seymour, left with her husband for Kentucky early Saturday.

FRIENDS OF the family here explained the first reports phoned to Circleville confused the listing of the injuries. The elder Seymour, in a corrected report, was said to have suffered a fractured skull, and leg and jaw fractures.

The Rev. Mr. Seymour has a punctured lung and other severe chest injuries.

Mrs. Seymour, wife of the clergyman, was said to have a fractured pelvis.

Prison Inmate Curbs Upheld

CHICAGO (AP)—State prison wardens have the right to prevent convicts from painting pictures or taking out patents on inventions, the U. S. Court of Appeals says.

The ruling of Justice H. Nathan Swaim upheld U. S. District Judge William J. Campbell's dismissal of a $427,000 suit against Warden Joseph E. Ragen of the Illinois State Penitentiary.

Clyde Wagner, serving a 100-year sentence for the 1937 slaying of an Alton policeman, brought the suit. He alleged his civil rights were violated because Ragen confiscated his paintings and refused to allow him to apply for a patent for a self-heating shoe pad as a protection against frostbite.

Ike Vs McCarthy Feud Continuing

Little Attention Being Paid To GOP Warning On Party Unity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration seems headed for continued conflict with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) despite cautions from some Republican quarters against broadening the senator's dispute with top Army officials.

Foreign Aid Administrator Harold E. Stassen loosed a fresh attack on McCarthy yesterday with an assertion that "we need less headline hunters and more Eisenhower backers for the good of America."

With what some lawmakers surmised was White House assent, Stassen asserted McCarthy had made a "legion of false statements" in a Senate speech Wednesday in which the Wisconsin senator said it was "criminal folly" to continue to give financial aid to allies who ship goods to Red China. Stassen wouldn't say if the issue was discussed in his meeting with Eisenhower yesterday.

Stassen used strong terms at a news conference in spite of what an influential Republican senator said was his advice to the White House: Let McCarthy's row with Secretary of the Army Stevens run its course without unnecessarily fanning further the flame.

THE GOP SENATOR, regarded as one of Eisenhower's staunchest supporters, declined use of his name but told an interviewer of his counsel to White House officials "I just reminded them," he said, "that McCarthy is going to be a senator for three and a half years more and there will be a lot of occasions around here when we may need Republican votes."

Stassen, whose agency faces rough going in Congress on its new $3. billion foreign aid request, made clear yesterday he does not expect to find McCarthy among those voting "aye."

McCarthy and Eisenhower are at odds over a presidential order cutting off testimony about a private high-level administration conference at which the Army's dealings with McCarthy and his aides were discussed.

Herald's Weekly Rain-Crop Report Gives Vital Data

Do you think the drought will be as rough, or rougher, this summer? What do the figures say so far—didn't all that rain recently put us up to schedule in ground moisture this year?

Are the spittle bugs turning out to be as bad as a lot of farmers said they would be? What does the County Agent have to say on the whole local crop picture?

More and more, as the year goes on, these and other questions like them are going to be vitally important to district farmers. And more and more the best way to get the answers will be to keep checking on The Herald's Rain and Crop Report, tentatively scheduled to appear in each Monday issue.

It's a weekly report made possible through local and state weather bureaus and the Pickaway County Farm Extension Service. And it deals especially with the local district.

Animals In The News Spotting Armadillos, Puma, Wooing Platypus

NEW YORK (AP) — Here's the latest on animals in the news: Soft-hearted zoo-men go for hard-shelled armadillos; sore-armed dancer picks python over puma; duck-billed Cecil re-woos Penelope the platypus.

At Riverhead N. Y., Sidney Schwartz complained Thursday he was up to his ears in armadillos. Two lady armadillos, which he bought in order to write a thesis on their birth habits for a New York University doctorate, produced seven armor-plated babies.

Armadillos habitually sleep during daylight hours and whomp it up at night. And they eat like hogs, not armadillos. Schwartz said local

Geneva Conference Turns Attention To Korea Again

GENEVA (AP)—The Geneva Conference switched back today to the stalemate Korean debate, but behind the scenes maneuvering centered on Indochina.

South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai planned to place before the Korean parley a new proposal designed to unify the war-devastated peninsula, but it appeared destined for a quick Communist rebuff.

Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai has also asked to speak at the 19-nation parley. In separate Indochina talks yesterday the West and the Communists reportedly agreed to points

Lad, 15, Given Life Sentence

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A 15-year-old boy was convicted of first degree murder yesterday in the slaying of a teen-age girl. A circuit court jury set his penalty at life imprisonment.

The boy, Jesse Ray, was charged with slaying 12-year-old Mynette Foster here last Feb. 8. The girl's body was found near her home here bearing 10 stab wounds.

Assistant Circuit Atty. George W. Draper said the penalty was the stiffest ever given to a juvenile in his experience.

Latin Nation Levels Blast At America

Little Country Says U.S. Spreads Alarmist Reports About Arms

GUATEMALA (AP) — Guatemala said last night saboteurs blasted a rail line in an attempt to blow up a munitions train. The announcement came as the government heatedly charged the United States with spreading alarmist reports about arms arriving here from Iron Curtain countries.

Interior Minister August Charnaud MacDonald said the explosion occurred Wednesday, killing a civilian and a soldier and injuring three other soldiers.

The saboteurs fought a gun battle with federal troops, he said, and then fled into the hills near the Honduran border. The arms shipment, moving to Guatemala City from Puerto Barrios, was unharmed, he said.

The U. S. State Department, voicing concern over increasing Red influence in Guatemala's leftist government, notified other Latin American countries last Monday that the Swedish ship Alphen was unloading a shipment of arms from Communist Poland at Puerto Barrios.

SOME WASHINGTON officials estimated the value of the arms at $10 million. The State Department said they were loaded at Stettin, a former German port now in Poland.

Charnaud said he believed Guatemalan political refugees in neighboring Honduras took part in the plot.

The gang placed about 32 one-pound powder charge but only two went off.

The government did not identify the civilian victim of the blast. It was believed, however, that he was one of the plotters.

The Foreign Ministry issued a communique yesterday accusing the United States of spreading "malicious and unjustified" reports about arms purchases from the Communists.

The statement denied Guatemala had received any guns made in Russia or Poland and added it was no concern of the United States if it had.

The statement said also U. S. guns were going to several governments which have an "unfriendly and aggressive" attitude toward Guatemala.

The statement declared, also, the United States had committed an "act of aggression" against Guatemala by trying to "wear down the defensive capacity of the Guatemalan army through an arms boycott."

In Washington, observers pointed out that, although Guatemala had denied receiving arms made in Russia or Poland, she had not denied getting them from other Iron Curtain countries.

Slaying Case Against Lima Man Halted

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Chief U. S. Prosecutor Thomas Lancia today abruptly halted further action in the 1946 murder of three American Army officers pending "full study of the case."

Deputy Prosecutor William Canfield of Hampden, Mass., yesterday filed murder charges against former Army Capt. James M. Leech, 44, of Lima, Ohio, and said he was forwarding extradition papers to the U. S. High Commission at Bonn for action.

The charges accuse Leech of the ax-and-arson murders Jan. 7, 1946, of Maj. Everett S. Cofran of Washington, D. C., Capt. Adrian L. Wessler of New Rochelle, N. Y., and 1st Lt. Stanley M. Rosewater of Omaha, Neb.

But Lancia, of Boston, Mass., disclosed the extradition request had not been forwarded to Bonn. He said through a State Department press officer:

"This is a highly important case and I want to study all the facts before making any further state ment."

He indicated nothing further would be announced until Monday, at the earliest.

Leech faces three charges of murder, three of intentional homicide and one of arson. Canfield, due to leave his post in June, said he had a "very strong circumstantial case" against Leech, former deputy to Cofran when the latter was town commander of Passau, in Bavaria.

A fishing party planned by the First Evangelical United Brethren Brotherhood has been postponed due to the death of Rockford C. Brown, a charter member. The new date will be June 5.

Taft GOPster, New Dealer To Vie In Election

Ohio's 7th District
Slated To See Race
Of Wide Contrasts

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's 7th District congress race next November pits a New Deal Democrat against a Taft Republican.

Contestants are Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester and Charles West of Lebanon in the eight-county district.

Brown, Republican national committeeman, received an unopposed nomination for a ninth two-year term in the U.S. House of Representatives.

West, former 17th District congressman, won the Democratic nomination in the May 4 primary election from James W. Lentz of Springfield.

That set the stage for a clash of more than passing interest at a time when the political balance of power in Congress hangs on the national fall elections.

West has no illusions about his prospects in the predominantly Republican district. But he claims his chances are brighter than they appear at first blush.

Now doing public relations work, West professes to see labor in Springfield and farmers generally disgruntled over the Eisenhower administration. And he says followers of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft aren't exactly happy.

Brown was Taft-for-President campaign manager in 1948 and a Taft delegate to the 1952 National GOP Convention that nominated Dwight D. Eisenhower.

And Brown was involved in the ill-fated attempt of Ohio House speaker William Saxbe, Mechanicsburg, to wrest the party nomination for U.S. senator from Rep. George H. Bender of Cleveland.

Saxbe carried the district composed of Logan, Union, Champaign, Clark, Madison, Greene, Warren and Clinton counties.

West topped his review of prospects with the assertion that if he wins election, it will indicate a trend that will sweep Democrats to control of Congress.

But Brown's record appears formidable. His career in state politics began in 1918 with election as lieutenant governor. He served two terms and then won election as secretary of state for three terms, starting in 1927.

In 1932, Brown ran second in a four-man race for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. He received the nomination two years later, but lost to Democrat Martin L. Davey in a three-way contest. He has represented the 7th District since election to Congress in 1938.

West, then a political science professor at Denison University, Granville, put his teachings into practice by running for 7th District congressman in 1926. That was the year Brown won his first term as secretary of state. Counties in the district were: Ashland, Richland, Holmes, Knox, Coshoot, Delaware and Licking.

Although unsuccessful that year, West won the Democratic nomination in 1928, but lost the election. He won a seat in the House in 1930 and was re-elected in 1932. Two years later he ran second in a three-way race for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator.

Finding favor in the eyes of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, West served as undersecretary of the Interior from 1935 to 1941. During that period he had ready access to the White House. West recalled that over a long period he visited Roosevelt almost every morning in his bedroom for briefings. He acted as the President's liaison man with Congress, but later fell from favor.

West turned to business interests in Mount Vernon, then his home and engaged in radio work in northeastern Ohio and other activities.

He popped into the political glare in 1950 as ghost-writer in the unsuccessful campaign of former State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson to unseat Sen. Taft.

City, County Hit By Series Of Crimes

Circleville High School was one of the victims of a series of crimes Thursday night or Friday morning, according to Circleville police. Sgt. Rod List reported that the school was broken into but there was no evidence as to how entry was gained.

The offices of city schools superintendent George Hartman and CHS principal J. Wray Henry were ransacked. List said. In addition, the home economics room and cafeteria were entered. Filing cabinets were forced and approximately 30 cents was taken from a vending machine.

A number of tools, said by police to be commonly used in burglaries, were found in the school building. Officers discovered the tools had been stolen a short time earlier from a tool house on S. Clinton St. They included a hand saw, two crow bars, two screw drivers and a sledge hammer.

About 6:30 a. m. Friday, Sgt. George Green reported that four tires and wheels had been stolen

But he said that if the hearings continue next week he would like to have subpoenaed for testimony five newsmen — Homer Bigart, New York Herald Tribune; columnist Joseph Alsop; Phil Potter, Baltimore Sun, and Murrey Marder and Al Friendly, both of the Washington Post.

Columbus Man Held For Jury In Fatal Crash

Donald Shockley, 22, of Columbus, pleaded innocent before Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb Saturday to accusations of second degree manslaughter and failure to yield the right of way. Judge Lamb ordered Shockley bound over to the grand jury. Bond was set at $5,000 on the manslaughter charge and $50 on the failure to yield.

The accusations, filed by Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer, grew out of a traffic accident May 7. A Pennsylvania industrialist was fatally injured.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Routes 22 and 104, four miles west of Circleville. Earl C. Stauffer, 52 year-old president and founder of a Lancaster, Pa., boiler firm was killed instantly after being thrown from his car when the two autos collided in a steady rain.

Stauffer's wife, Lucille, 39, suffered severe knee lacerations and a 19 year-old baby sitter, Jane Geist, complained of back and chest injuries. Eight-month-old Earl Charles Stauffer was not injured.

SHOCKLEY'S two passengers also suffered injuries. Burley Woods, 20, had a skull fracture, and abrasions about his face and lower legs. Harley Bailey, 18, had a broken jaw, lacerations and suffered shock. Both boys, who are from Columbus, were taken to University Hospital in Columbus. Mrs. Stauffer and Miss Geist were treated at Berger and released.

According to Deputy Carl White, Shockley claims he was traveling south on 104 and halted at the stop sign guarding the intersection. He told White he didn't see any cars coming and pulled out when his car was struck from the right by Stauffer.

Locker Rooms In Some Offices Closely Resemble Supermarkets

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a new kind of class warfare going on in America today.

It is a war between the white collar class and the coin vending machines in the office locker rooms where millions of white collar workers now consume the lunches they carry to work.

In some offices the locker rooms resemble supermarkets, crowded with automatic dispensing gadgets that peddle everything from mystery novels to stockings.

The locker room in my firm, however, is making no attempt to run the A&P out of business. We have only seven of these coin-operated mechanical salesmen, which yield two kinds of milk, several flavors of ice cream, seven brands of cigarettes, four varieties of soft drinks, and about 20 kinds of candy bars.

But even these seven machines have turned our placid locker room into an exciting battleground where men and metal monsters grapple in mortal combat.

I have practically given up going to the theater or watching television. When I want to study human nature in the raw, I go to the locker room, where I am sure I can find more soul-searing drama than in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," more suspense than in "Dragnet," more comedy than in a Broadway musical offers.

Who will win, man or machine? This is the crucial issue every time an employee approaches one of the machines with a coin. Nine out of 10 times there is a happy ending. The machine hesitates, grumbles, then reluctantly coughs up the desired merchandise.

The 10th time (maybe the machine doesn't like the feel of the coin or the color of the necktie the employee is wearing) nothing happens. Then anything can happen from a renewal of the siege of Vicksburg to another Battle of the Bulge.

Usually the engagement ends after a flurry of wild blows and kicks, a series of high-pitched human yells and low stubborn mechanical growls, with the employee nursing bruised fists and sore toes and the machine sneering at the natural superiority it feels toward any white collar worker.

Since the profits from our machines go into an office welfare fund, we have an umpire who settles most of these disputes by returning the lost coin, a truce that really appeases neither man nor machine.

But in another office locker room I know of, a really interesting dispute arose. An employee claimed he pushed down the button of the vending machine for a bar of plain chocolate. But he got instead a chocolate almond bar, which he detests, and after chewing up the first bite he detected half a worm waving in wild protest at him from a bit-through almond.

This man demands he wants more than his nickel back. He wants to sue the machine. The machine, on the other hand, claims the man is a known liar and a fraud, and insists it will fight the case clear up to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

It is clear that more and more of these difficult issues will arise in time. In a world where there is already too much ill will, the Nobel Peace Prize certainly ought to go to the first man who can find a way to curb the growing hostility between the white collar class and the locker room automatic vending machines.

Capitol Hill Highlights

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most of the major work of Congress was done behind closed doors this week as committees labored at drafting measures to carry out President Eisenhower's legislative program.

Haste was dictated by Congress' desire to wind up its work as soon as possible in this campaign year. The President has said his party will stand or fall in the November election on the strength of his program.

Major bill-writing projects were in the fields of social security, housing and taxes.

The week's big floor action was on Eisenhower's request for lowering the voting age in federal elections from 21 to 18 years. The Senate killed the proposed constitutional amendment yesterday. In another field, foreign trade, the President relaxed his pressure for tariff-cutting power now in the face of strong opposition, much of it from Republicans.

Eisenhower successfully cleared one hurdle that could have affected profoundly his relations with Congress. GOP leaders in the Senate accepted—at least for the time being—his order limiting executive branch testimony in the McCarthy-Army hearings.

SOCIAL SECURITY
The House Ways and Means Committee took the first congressional action on presidential proposals to expand the social security program. It approved boosting benefit payments to those now on the rolls from $5 to $13.50 a month and upped to $4,200 the minimum annual wage on which both benefits and social security taxes are based.

The committee voted coverage for more than seven million farm operators, professional people and state and local government employees. But it deferred action on the question of coverage for an estimated 2,600,000 farm laborers.

HOUSING
The Senate Banking Committee, hoping to ready a housing bill for debate early next week, approved raising from $16,000 to $18,000 the maximum mortgage insurable by the federal housing administration on one and two family homes. It also raised the repayment period to 30 years.

The group refused to okay an Eisenhower proposal that homes costing $7,000 or less and built as a result of slum clearance have 40-year mortgages with no down payments. Instead it approved 30-year mortgages with a maximum of $350 down.

Earlier, the committee voted to give the President authority to build an unspecified number of low cost housing units each year for the next four years. Eisenhower's request for authority to build 35,000 units yearly had been spured by the House.

The Banking Committee also moved to tighten loopholes in the housing law which have been blamed for reported widespread abuses in the administration of FHA-insured loans.

TAXES
The Senate Finance Committee continued closed sessions to draft a bill implementing administration plans for a big overhaul of the nation's tax laws. The House already has approved such a measure.

FOREIGN TRADE
Faced with strong congressional opposition, the President postponed his plea for action this year on a broad program to bolster free world trade. Instead, he asked for renewal of the present reciprocal trade act for one year.

MCCARTHY-ARMY
The McCarthy-Army hearings moved under a cloud Monday when Eisenhower ordered administration officials not to testify about executive branch conferences in-

Two Men Detained On Theft Of Wool

Two men allegedly confessed early Saturday morning to the theft of some wool from a Franklin County mill a few hours earlier. Deputy Sheriff Carl White said he discovered the men in Pickaway County by chance while they were transferring the loot from one car to another.

James J. Smith, 27, of Grove City Route 1 and Charles Tobin, 25, of Orient, reportedly admitted they had stolen the wool. Smith was quoted as saying he did it to get money to "catch up" on alimony payments.

Both men were turned over to the Franklin County sheriff's department.

The Hereford breed of beef cattle was introduced into America in 1817.

First EUB Church Hails Loyalty Day At Sunday Service

Continuing the stewardship emphases, First Evangelical United Brethren Church observes Church Loyalty Day, Sunday in the 9:30 a. m. unified worship church school with the pastor, the Rev. Carl L. Wilson delivering the sermon, "The Church of Christ" from scriptural directives in St. Matthew 16:18 and Ephesians 5:25-27. At the close of the service the annual congregational meeting will be conducted when general church and church school officers will be selected.

Miss Lucille Kirkwood, organist, plays "Fifth Nocturne," "Ave Verum" and "March." The church choir sings the anthem, "He Lives." The congregation sings "Holy, Holy, Holy!" "The Church's One Foundation Is Jesus Christ, Her Lord," "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord" and "Lead On, O King, Eternal."

Of the sermon topic, the Rev. Mr. Wilson comments, "The true Christian is a person who loves the church. It is not sufficient that one 'loves the Lord,' he must love his church also, with a deep abiding love and devotion. Jesus said, 'I will build My church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.'"

"It is 'His church' to which He calls people and requires that they be faithful stewards of their church privileges. It is necessary for a person to be interested in and be loyal to, the whole program of his church in all its various phases, both at home and abroad. Unless a person believes in, and has a deep abiding love for and devotion to Christ's church, he cannot and will not be loyal to its entire program."

"According to Jesus, a provincial person is a total misfit in the cause of the kingdom. It is a well established principal that a disloyal person is a traitor."

"It is required that a steward be found faithful is the admonition from St. Paul in I Corinthians 4:2. Faithfulness in the absolute task of kingdom building is absolutely essential to fulfill the demands of God. Throughout the Bible, God demands loyalty and first place."

"The first commandment is concerned with man's loyalty in relationship to God. Jesus came preaching, 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God.' The church with its divine origin and leadership is the earthly medium for 'bringing in the kingdom of God on earth.'"

"The Christian's first allegiance is to Christ, as Savior and Lord. But this allegiance is most shallow unless it gives expression through loyalty to the church. Without the Christian church the cause of Christ would suffer. Without loyalty to the Church of Christ, the kingdom of God suffers. Christ calls to Church Loyalty. What will the answer be?"

Church school classes study the Bible lesson, "Micah Withstands False Prophets."

Children under twelve meet in the service center for church school at 9:30 a. m. and junior church worship at 10:30 a. m.

Trinity Lutherans Sports Discussion Held Thursday

The Thursday evening program of the Trinity Lutheran Brotherhood opened with the hymn, "Savior, like a Shepherd Lead Us."

The meditation, which centered around the story of the wise and foolish virgins, was presented by the Rev. G. L. Troutman, who also led the men in prayer. Group singing of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," concluded the devotions.

During the business meeting which followed, a report was given on the success of the Diamond Jubilee Banquet. The group was also informed that plans for the 1954 Vacation Bible School are nearing completion and that it will run from June 1-18.

Following their refreshment and social period, the men returned to their meeting room where they enjoyed a discussion of sports. George Troutman led off by explaining the various events connected with track and by telling why he enjoys that sport so much. Charles Walters then presented a discussion of some of the formations and plays used in football. He also gave his impression of the recent OSU spring grid squad game and said there seems to be some good material added to the squad this year.

The program was concluded by Harold Bumgarner, who told how he became interested in basketball and of the thrill and enjoyment which he received from watching his sons take part in the sport.

Church Of Christ Sermon Calls For Spiritual Building

The sermon subject announced for the church of Christ, meeting at 159 E. Main St. for Sunday is: "The People Had A Mind To Work."

Evangelist Charles Cochran makes the following observations on this lesson:

"When Nehemiah undertook to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down and burned with fire, the task before him and the Jews seemed extremely difficult and hazardous. Their efforts were opposed and ridiculed by their enemies. Sanballat mockingly said, 'Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?' (Neh. 4:2) Tobiah ridiculed, saying, 'Even that which they build, if a fox go up he shall even break down their stone wall' (Neh. 4:3)."

"However, in spite of the great opposition, so successful was the work that Nehemiah was able to write, 'So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work' (Neh. 4:6). The secret of their great success lay in the mind or attitude of the people. They were willing to work. True, God fought for them; but God does not fight for those who are not willing to work."

"Today every Christian is a builder on the spiritual walls of Zion. The enemy may suggest ways of compromising, and may try to hinder the work by ridicule and discouragement, however, if all have aimed to work 'great things may be accomplished for the Lord.'"

Ascension Sunday Services Listed By Presbyterians

During the weeks between Easter and Pentecost, it is customary for Christian believers to follow closely the record of what happened during the 40 days from the Resurrection Morn., to Pentecost, with particular attention to the Ascension of our Lord.

At the Presbyterian Church, Ascension Sunday will be observed in the 10:30 worship service, this being Ascension Sunday.

The Rev. Donald Mitchell will preach on the theme "The Power of Love to Provide." He will develop it from the Scripture account of the Ascension of our Lord, as recorded in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles.

There we find that in that day the chief concern of most people was whether the Risen Christ would then establish a nationalistic state. Would He now restore the political kingdom to Israel? On the contrary He held that the first concern of Christian believers must be effective witnessing to the Christian Way of life which He had taught.

This movement requires no military or police organization to enforce it. The Love of God in Christ, provides the power that inspires constant vigilance, action and achievement. The Love of Christ in men, provides the only possible solution to the problems of our time, be they personal, national or international.

The Choir will sing the anthem, "Songs of Praises." Mrs. Clark Will directing. It will also lead the congregation in singing the hymns: "Hail The Day That Sees Him Rise;" "The Heavens Declare Thy Glory, Lord;" "On Our Way Rejoicing." At the organ, Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play, "Morning Bells and Cradle Song," "May Night," "Grande Chorus."

In the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Mitchell will meet with the Primary Teachers and Helpers of the Union Vacation Bible School for a planning conference at the Methodist Church at 3 o'clock. The purpose is to continue preparations for the school which opens June 14 through June 25.

Micaiah Withstands False Prophets

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—I King 22:1-40.

Syria had taken possession of the Israelish city of Ramoth-gilead. When King Jehoshaphat of Judah visited King Ahab of Israel, Ahab asked him if he would join in battle with him to recover it.

Jehoshaphat said, "Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord." Ahab gathered 400 men, asking them, "Shall I go to battle?" All said the Lord would be on the side of the king.

Jehoshaphat was not satisfied and called for a prophet of God. Ahab hated the prophet Micaiah but sent for him. Micaiah prophesied that Israel would be scattered as sheep having no shepherd.

During the battle Ahab was killed by an arrow through joints in his armor. He was propped up in his chariot so the enemy would not know he was dead. MEMORY VERSE—I Kings 22:14.

Bored Woman Can Find Fun In Antique Or Gift Shop

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Note to bored women: Want to see the world, meet interesting people and have a whale of a good time?

Then open an antique or gift shop, advises Roa duBord of Harbor Springs, Mich., who does business in a hen house.

Mrs. duBord is the picture of a happy woman. Summers she sells old English silver, French porcelain, modern crystal and knickknacks from all over the world in her hen house (that's the name of it) 12 miles out in the country from the resort town of Harbor Springs. Winters she and her husband, Andre, do the same thing in Bel Air, Fla. In between times she roams the world, in search of the rare and the beautiful.

All this is not only fun—it's financially profitable, says Mrs. duBord, who has an almost fanatic love of beauty, whether it be in a priceless piece of antique silver or a dollar corkscrew. She says: "There's no excuse for people to have drab, ugly things in their homes, because beautiful things are available at any price. The simple modern porcelains being made in this country have real beauty because they're functional. The same is true of some contemporary furniture and crystal. "You can find beauty in any period and in every price bracket. A price tag doesn't denote beauty. There are some fabulously expensive antiques that are monstrosities, and there are inexpensive modern pieces that are a joy to behold."

Mrs. duBord started a shop of her own in Toledo during the depression, found that people appreciated beauty when they found it, and prospered. There followed a branch shop at Harbor Springs, and another at Bel Air.

Then last year the duBords closed up the Toledo shop and the

Grease Corrals Boiling Water

A greased ring around pans reduces spillovers and thus helps keep ranges clean, according to Ruth Beard, Ohio State University household equipment instructor.

Greasing inside the top rim of utensils helps keep rice, macaroni, and other such foods from boiling over. The bubbling starch water can't easily pass this greased ring, the instructor says.

Perfume Should Be Selected To Suit Personality

By HELEN FOLLETT

How is your scent sense? Do you have trouble selecting a perfume for yourself?

It isn't easy to find a fragrance you will want to use year after year until it becomes a part of your personality. One must do a little experimenting before coming to such an important decision.

Perfume is a subtle thing. A faint, delicate aroma adds to a girl's glamour. A blast of a strong, too-penetrating essence, on the other hand, is repellent.

Keep in mind that the chemistry of your individual skin has an effect upon the bouquet of the perfume you wear. Better "try on" perfume in the shop, much as you would try on a frock or a hat. Rub a few drops into the pulse spot on your wrist. Wait a few moments for the alcoholic content to evaporate. This will give you the true fragrance.

The sophisticated buyer will probably want something dashing and exciting. The young girl should choose a light, delicate fragrance. It's like selecting colors: some like pastels and others prefer bold hues. It's all a matter of taste and type.

A wise woman will use powder, soap, perfume and toilet water that have the same scent. You can find these combinations at cosmetic counters.

Combine too many scents and the effect may not be at all pleasant. It doesn't make sense to have hands smelling of gardenia, clothes with a rose fragrance and hair with an aura of lilac.

Don't hoard perfume. It's wasteful. Even though the bottle is tightly stoppered, there will be a little evaporation going on all the time, especially if the bottle is in a warm place. Also, after six months or so, the contents of the bottle may change in character, and not for the better.

County League Has Six Teams

The 1954 "kid baseball" County League, oldest in age range for the Summer hardball program, will have six entries waiting at the barrier when the first ball goes in on Opening Day.

Dick Boyd, director of the Circleville Kiwanis Recreation Program, disclosed Friday that teams from Walnut and Jackson Townships have officially entered the race, confirming recent reports. Other clubs in the circuit will be:

Wilson Fords, General Electric, Ashville and Pickaway Township.

Paul Thomas and Howard Hosler are listed as managers for the Walnut entry, "Bunk" Hollis will pilot the Jackson.

The oldest loop will not be the only league with a county-wide touch. New Holland has a team entered in the Little League, managed by Bob Melick and Don Adams.

For Genuine Fishing Fun, It's Hard To Beat Bluegills

COLUMBUS—Take a fisherman, any kind, put into his hands a fishing outfit, any kind, add a school of bluegills and you have the basic ingredients for genuine fishing fun. Probably no fish gives as much pleasure to so many different kinds of anglers as the bluegill. Why? Well, bluegills being what they are, piscatorial billygoats willing to eat anything, any time, and not choosy as to where they live, they provide sport and food throughout this nation and Canada.

It is the smallest member of the sunfish family and the best known. The remark has often been made, if the bluegill suddenly grew to the proportions of its big cousin, the largemouth bass, a rash of fraudulent fly rods would break out across the country. Ounce for ounce, it's a great little sport fish and fishing would be a smaller sport were it not for the bombastic bluegill.

Bluegills are a friendly lot. Unlike other fish, their nests are found so close together that the rims touch. After the nest is made, the male bluegill spawns one or more females in it and guards the eggs until they hatch. Then he squires the young until they have absorbed their egg sacs and can leave the nest. So hardy and prolific are bluegills, they will take over a lake if not controlled.

Usually the bluegill's breast is bright copper-orange, depending on habitat. Most distinctive is the black blotch at the lower end of the dorsal fin, and the jet black opercular, or gill cover. Body is dark olive, with greenish bars.

The bluegill now is found most everywhere in the United States and Canada.

Imagine how the eyes of T. S. Hudson popped when he hauled in his record shattering 4 1/2 pounder from Ketona Lake, Ala., April 9, 1950! Looks like one mark that will stand forever.

If it's digestible, the bluegill will eat it; if not, the bluegill will try it anyway! Favorite foods are small minnows, worms, grasshoppers, crickets, insects, small crustaceans and such extras as popcorn, candy or picnic leftovers tossed its way.

If ever a fish and rod went together, it's the bluegill and fly rod. This is a perfect combination for downright fishing pleasure and any lightweight rod, 7 1/2 to 8 1/2 feet long, equipped with a D or E level fly line is excellent. The reel can be either single action or automatic.

One of the deadliest fly lures is a rubber spider or cricket, for underwater fishing. For surface fishing, small poppers are hard to beat when the water is calm. In extremely clear water it may be necessary to go to three or even two pound leaders. Normally six-pound test is best because his will pull loose from most lily pads.

Spinning with a plastic bobble and fly has become very popular and is accounting for a large take of bluegills throughout the country. Also effective, of course, is the old standby cane pole and bobber for just relaxing bluegill fishing.

The biggest bluegills in any lake will be found in the deepest holes, especially during the warmer months. Try this sometime and hold onto your hat. Use four-pound monofilament on a single action or casting reel. Most any rod will do. Anchor your boat over the deepest hole in the lake. Tie on a small jig spoon, the kind used through the ice, and jig it just off the bottom. There are times when this method will produce nothing but exercise. But, there are other times when the size and numbers of bluegills you'll take will amaze you.

Schedule, Playing Data Offered As Memo Sheet On Little League

In four separate articles starting today, The Herald will publish schedules, some of the rules and other routine data which will be important to the district's "kid baseball" program throughout the summer. Players and fans alike will find such information handy for reference during the season, and consequently they are urged to clip any or all of the articles holding special interest.

This suggestion is especially directed to the various sponsoring groups to insure their representative teams adequate sideline support when they are scheduled to go into action.

First of the articles will deal only with The Little League, smallest of the "kid baseball" program. It follows:

LITTLE LEAGUE RULES

1. Players may not wear steel spikes.
2. Age limits are 8 to 12 inclusive.
3. Bases are 60 feet apart. Pitching distance is 44 feet.
4. Regulation games consist of six innings.
5. The catcher does not have to catch the third strike. The batter is automatically out.
6. Base runners may not leave their bases until the ball has been delivered and has reached the batter.
7. Runners are allowed only one base when the PITCHER overthrows in attempting to pick off a runner.
8. The pitcher does not have to pause one second when pitching from the set position.
9. The pitcher may use either the windup position or the set position at any time.

Sokolsky's These Days

The letter could not be applied ex-post facto; it could not be used to foreclose continuing testimony on evidence already given, and voluntarily given, by the party pressing the charges. Senator McClellan stated the case as a lawyer had to. Some of the members of the committee who are not lawyers may not have been so plagued by the compulsion of the law.

This issue is now so complex that it could reach the Senate after an appeal to the full committee. At stake is the investigative power of Congress. At stake also is the prestige of the President. Senator McCarthy can now claim, as he already has, that three of his staff were singled out for persecution not because they committed a wrong but to destroy his political career.

The President can claim, as his letter does, that conversations within the Executive branch of the government are confidential. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., becomes a point of contest because the only position he holds in government is Ambassador to the United Nations.

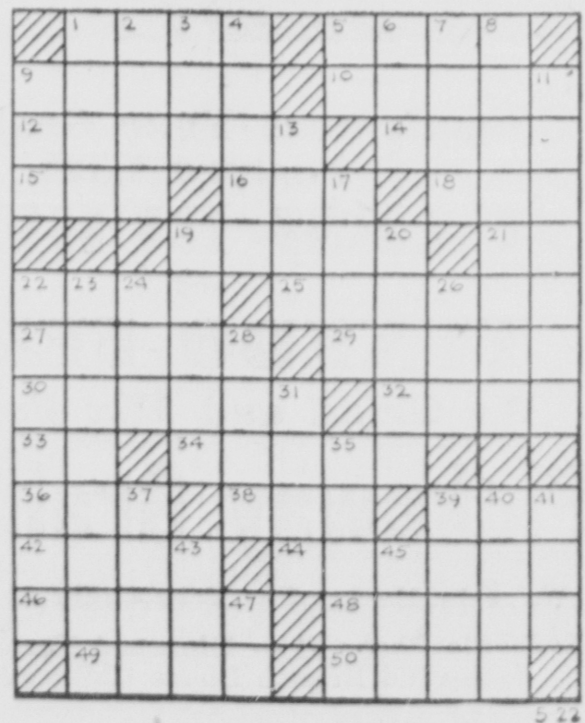

The case is practically all in. Subsequent hearings can only cor-

Five Redleg Errors Help Cardinals Win

ST. LOUIS — The Cincinnati Reds, edged 8-7 in 10 innings last night by the St. Louis Cardinals, were down today to the .500 level for the first time this season.

Five Redleg errors plus Stan Musial's grand slam homer contributed to the St. Louis victory.

The Cardinals tied the score 2-2 in the first inning, went ahead 6-5 in the seventh on Musial's big hit, and then, after the Reds tied the game in the ninth and tallied in the 10th, came through with two runs in their half.

Rip Repulski and Tom Alston touched Joe Nuxhall for the singles which drove in the winning runs, but Kenny Raffensberger was charged with the defeat.

Bobby Adams, 32-year-old third baseman, committed three errors. Roy McMillan and Johnny Temple accounted for the other miscues.

McMillan and Gus Bell, who singled in the first inning, came home when Musial permitted Ted Kluszewski's drive to get through him for a two-base error. The favor was returned in the bottom half of the frame. Red Schoendienst doubled off starter Fred Baczewski. Red touched home when Adams allowed Musial's grounder to bounce off his gloved hand. Ray

Burns Prove Fatal

GREENFIELD — Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mrs. Dorothy Schiller, 34, who died yesterday of burns. She was burned over most of her body when a kitchen stove exploded Thursday in her home.

Jablonski singled to produce the second tally.

Jim Greengrass indicated he has shaken his slump by banging a fast ball into the centerfield bleachers with two aboard.

'Missing' Man Locked In Trunk

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Fred Mueller, a "missing person" since Tuesday, was rescued Thursday from the locked trunk of his automobile.

Mueller, 53, said he became ill Tuesday afternoon while operating his car about 50 miles from his home here. He said he decided to rest in the trunk, and the lid snapped shut.

Police had a missing person alarm out for him. A motorist slowed by traffic on a road near New Paaltz, N. Y., heard Mueller pounding on the trunk lid and got him out.

The gauge of a shotgun is deteriorated by the number of lead balls per pound that can be placed in the muzzle end of the cylinder bore barrel.

Cop Still Awaits Five-Cent Claim

DENVER (AP)—Veteran Detective Joe Holindrake is retiring July 1, leaving behind an uncollected claim—5 cents—against the city to replace a shoelace.

While still a rookie cop, Holindrake explains, he used the lace while assisting the birth of a baby before an ambulance arrived.

His expense voucher for 5 cents to buy new laces was turned down by his sergeant on the grounds he "only used one lace."

U.S. Mounting No Big Guns As Part Of Pacific Defense

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH

PEARL HARBOR (AP)—Western Pacific islands form America's front-line defense against communism in the Pacific today but the only guns you find there are the rusted relics left by a beaten Japan.

The reason is the old military dictum that the best defense is a good offense.

Millions of dollars are being poured into key islands but it isn't being spent on shore defenses or combat troops.

In nearly a month of travel from the Marshalls north to the Bonin Islands I didn't see one shore-based fighter plane or infantry unit.

These islands once bristled with shore guns of an imperialistic Japan. America uses them today as military transport airports and supply depots.

On Kwajalein, for instance, the 6,500-foot airstrip on the 2½-mile-long island is a major link in our military global air route. In event of war it and the strip on Roi Island, 60 miles to the north, could in a matter of days be operating bases for bomber and fighter craft.

The only planes operating from Kwajalein today are patrol craft. The only guns are small arms.

Guam, obviously the key island in the central Pacific defenses, has many shore guns — but all rusting weapons put there by the Japanese during World War II.

Only two of Guam's airfields—Anderson Air Force Base and Agaña — are operational. Orate, Northwest and Harmon fields have been abandoned but the strips are usable.

Supply and ammunition areas on Guam cover miles and miles. The island is capable of supplying and servicing all types of ships and aircraft.

Tinian, with its two huge airports, is virtually unmanned from a military standpoint. Two enlisted men are there.

But those airports — one with 10,000-foot runways from which the Hiroshima and Nagasaki A-bombs were flown — are immediately usable.

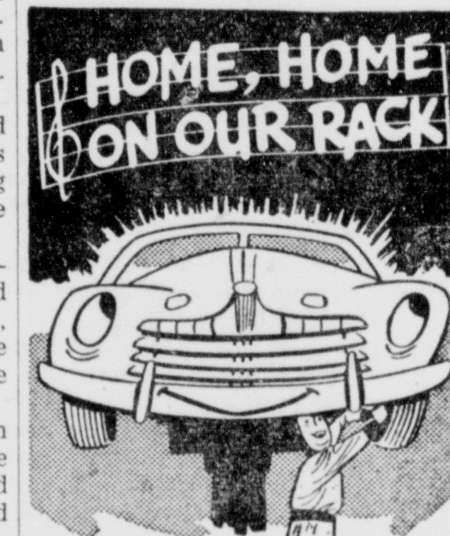

Saipan has only a small force, about 100 men.

Iwo Jima is manned by the Air Force. But the force, except for one plane used in air-sea rescue work, is entirely maintenance. Military planes use it as a stopping place on transoceanic flights.

Japan built its strongest island fortress in the Bonin Islands. Chichi Jima, main island in the group, was not invaded. Today amid the shambles of the once powerful Japanese outpost the Navy keeps a small unit of three officers and 14 enlisted men.

As long as there's peace in the Pacific no larger weapons are needed. If war should come, the United States plans to be swinging so hard and so fast it won't have to worry about island invaders.

In ancient Japan, the neighbors of a man guilty of a crime were punished with him because they did not prevent the crime.

Greenlease Cops Sent To Prison

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Two St. Louis policemen who captured little Bobby Greenlease's kidnapers have been sentenced to prison for lying to a federal grand jury about what happened to a record $600,000 ransom.

Former Lt. Louis Shoulders, a veteran of 27 years on the police force was sentenced to three years. Rookie Patrolman Elmer Dolan was given two years.

District Judge Albert A. Ridge, who sentenced the pair on charges of perjury, said he made the distinction because Shoulders was the dominating man who had the direction in the case.
